

GLOBAL ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN COMPETITION FOR INDIAN NATIONAL WAR MUSEUM & CONNECTING TUNNEL

An open international design competition has been proposed by Ministry of Defence, Government of India to select an Architect for the design and implementation of its proposed “National War Museum” to be located at Princess Park, New Delhi, with underground inter connectivity.

OBJECTIVES

The competition seeks to find the comprehensive plan & design for the construction of “National War Museum” on a site of appx.10.71 Acres with plan and design for interconnecting underground tunnel to National War Memorial in C Hexagon near India Gate.

- (a) Portray military campaigns, heroic deeds and victories through a multi sensory display so as to reinforce citizens’ faith and pride in the Armed Forces.
- (b) Exhibit relics and records of historical significance and military interest, chronicling ascendancy of Armed Forces from ancient times.
- (c) Display items of military interest and historical value including development of arms, equipment and their role in the Indian history.
- (d) Profile human experience of war and chronicle military events which shaped development of our country and national character.
- (e) Enhance awareness of the glorious military heritage of India to instil and motivate citizens to greater devotion and duty to the country.
- (f) Inform about the challenges under which Armed Forces operate to enhance comprehension and understanding of the Armed Forces.
- (g) Act as Military’s premier educational research and archive center with multimedia libraries, seminar and exhibition facilities.
- (h) Establish itself as an outstanding landmark in the National Capital Region for Indian and foreign visitors.

IMPORTANT DATES FOR THE GLOBAL COMPETITION

(a)	Call Notice to Architects for the Competition	15 th August 2016
(b)	Closing of Online Registration	13 th September 2016
(c)	Last Date for Online Submission	15 th September 2016
(d)	Announcement of Result of Stage 1	15 th October 2016
(e)	Submission Deadline of Deliverables by selected 9 Competitors	30 th November 2016
(f)	Announcement of Final Result	31 st December 2016
(g)	Consultants Acceptance as per Council of Architecture	15 th January 2017

THE JURY

Eleven Members Jury consisting of Six Technical and Five Non – Technical Members. The names of the Jury Members will be announced by 1st September 2016.

AWARDS

The 1st winning entry will receive USD 75,000 the 2nd entry will receive USD 50,000 , the 3rd winning entry will receive USD 25,000. The Organizers will give 9 finalists sum of USD 3000* each to compensate upgradation of design and for retaining their drawings.

INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION

www.indiannationalwarmuseum.com

(* For Indian designers the said prize money will be equivalent in Indian currency)